The Goddard seconds defeated the Montpelier seminary seconds at base ball yesterday afternoon by a score of 14 to 2. Only six innings were played on account of rain.

The Montpelier creamery Tuesday turned out 1010 pounds of butter, which is supposed to be the day's record for this vicinity. During the last seven days their output was 8500 pounds.

Miss Mina Brown, formerly a teacher at Goddard seminary, who has been at Montpelier for several months, went today to her home in Roxbury. She will leave in a few weeks for Europe, conducting a party.

Saturday's ball game between Norwich and Harvard 2nd will be played at Northfield, instead of at Montpelier, as previously stated. Northfield citizens having guaranteed the amount of money necessary.

The patriotic concert given at the Congregational church last evening proved a very enjoyable affair. The patriotic songs sung by the choir and a special chorus were very inspiring and won the hearty applause of all who heard them.

The honors of Montpelier Seminary were announced immediately after chapel yesterday. The first honor goes to Arthur Hewitt, of Berlin, and the second honors to Agnes Pike, of Brattleboro, Bertrand McBride, of Brownsville, Ralph Wiggins, George Melver, Nina Battles, all of Montpelier.

The male members of the Bennett-Moulton repertoire company, which is playing at the opera house this week, are ball players as well as actors. They crossed bats with the Spaulding team at the Granite City trotting park yesterday afternoon, but the game was cut off after the third inning with the score standing 4 to 3 in favor of the show people.

The term of enlistment of First Sergt. F. C. Jary of Co. B, Montpelier, expired yesterday, and Sergt. Jary has notified Capt. Thomas that his work is such that he cannot re-enlist. This news will be received with regret by members of Company B among whom he was held in the highest esteem and Capt. Thomas paid a high compliment to Sergt. Jary when, in speaking of his resignation, he said that he was one of the best men the company ever had and he was sorry that he was to leave.

"The Outcast of Society," presented at the opera house last evening scored one of the most pronounced hits of the week. The play is a stirring one and the manner of its presentation left no room for adverse criticism. The specialties are all good, the Cuban nightingales still taking the house by storm. The play for tonight is the Lyndon Bank Robbery and is taken from an actual occurrence of the robbery at the Lyndon Bank. This is Justin Adams latest production and one that he expects will prove as successful as Quincy Adams Sawyer.
